I meet Joe at the Senior Center in Tolland when I worked there. He was such a character and full of life. He told me he was going to make it to 100 and I was invited to his birthday party. Was thinking of him today and found out he had passed. Rest in peace Joe, I'll miss you. Kim Kowalshyn

Motorcycle Joe, What a pleasure it was to know you for three decades. Seeing you during my travels last summer was a joy. From now on every time I hear thunder I'll know your are riding the clouds. Keep the rubber down and the shiny side up. Rest in peace my friend Kevin Moran, Hickory North Carolina
