“ To the Muzio family, I am so sorry for your loss. I met Alda about 15 years ago when I was helping care for her sister Jennie. I have fond memories of Alda stopping by to see her sister for a visit and playing cards. I enjoyed listening to Alda talk about her family. She was so proud of them. I will always remember Alda as a kind and sweet woman. As years went by I never forgot about her. If I saw Amy I would ask how Alda was doing. I know she will be missed by all who loved her. May she rest in peace. God bless.

“ Alda was a gift to all that know her, she was a happy fun loving lady who we all enjoyed each and every day she was with us here at St Joseph's. No matter what she did she was always laughing or singing. Every time I hear the song " You are my sunshine" I will think of her. All my prayers go out to her and her family who have become very dear to me these past few years.

Lots of love Diane Falkowski
