

Harold Marvin Thon

May 18, 2022

Harold Marvin Thon, of Stafford Springs, CT passed away on May 18, 2022 at the age of 79. He was born on January 26, 1943 to Harold and Helen Thon in Fort Madison, Iowa. After spending his childhood in Idaho, Harold Marvin, a U.S. Air Force veteran, received his degree in Psychology before starting New England Gemstone Supply with his brother, Larry Joseph. He was predeceased by his sister, Phyllis; and leaves behind his wife of 57 years, Keiko; three children, Michael, Brooks and Heather; and five beloved grandchildren. He enjoyed spending time with his friends whether he was taking them up to fly in his plane, sharing stories of his travels, or grabbing a beer and a bite to eat. His generosity and sense of humor will be missed by many. A celebration in his honor will take place with details to follow. “ Marv gave me a plane ride that was a very Special experience. We started about dusk when all the lights at the mall, UConn we're coming on. Even the highway lights added beauty. We often talked about it over the years. Will miss our chats over the desk. Deepest Sympathies to all family.
