“ Dear family of Kelly,
I am deeply sorry to hear of the loss of your beloved Kelly. I was a childhood friend of Kelly in Glendale, CA. I was glad to have reconnected with her via faceBook and talk about our childhood days. May Kelly rest in peace.

“ Mom I can't stop crying everytime I think of you. Every little thought about how you won't be around to do something rips me into tear. I love you so much! Just thoes words don't describe the love I have for you! No one could understand how much I love you. You have been my biggest supporter since the start! Always someone who I could go talk to with no judgment, a shoulder to cry on when I had non. You poured everything into me growing up! YOU mom are my HERO!!!! Stronger in heart than anything I have ever known! We my head was down, you were their to lift it up and put a smile on it! You touched the hearts of so many! You always wanted the best for everyone around you and cared so much. You would give when you barely had anything! Even your last dollar if your knew it would help someone get a little farther. Because that's who, you were, the greatest Woman, Mother, Hero I have ever met! Your grandchildren will only know of how great and strong of a mother you are! Every little lesson we show them that you thought us, they will know you were the one who taught us that. I love you mom.

“ I meet Kelly at a government food giveaway we became fast friends for over a year we did every thing together. The we got a house together. Kelly snd I where best friends. She desperately wanted a kitty and I came home one day and she was mad at me about something and I told her "tell me you love me" and she said it and i gave her a very tinny Gizmo Gray Potter kitty. She was so in love euth him. We Planned parties, my wedding, birthdays, camping trips. We always had fun. We fought like sisters and loved and forgave each other juat the same. My poor husbsnd rudy. Wod say "oh no" when he heard the words "oh Rudy we have a great idea" we planted gardens, sewed baby stuff, cooked, baked. Talked about our babies , grand babies and how much we missed each other. I love my friend and sister.
