“ There is nothing anybody can say to ease your pain but knowing there is so many people out there that are trying means that you and your family are loved. Try and remember the joy your son brought to you in better times. I remember Beth many years ago that special hug you gave me at Saint Matthews I'm sending you one along with my prayers and sympathy take care

“ He was a beautiful boy - handsome and funny, kind and thoughtful. We used to love it when Lucinda and Leland would come across the street to "visit" and will never forget the year he dressed up as a scarecrow and scared the daylights out of trick or treaters! He was always willing to lend a hand. He will never be forgotten. No words can make this better but we love you all and we love Leland.
